

EMPLOYMENT AGREEMENT

Synthetic legal document for local software testing only.

This Employment Agreement (the "Agreement") is entered into as of February 1, 2026 by and between Aster LegalOps, Inc., a Delaware corporation with offices at 210 Market Street, Austin, Texas 78701 (the "Company"), and Jordan Vale, an individual residing in Travis County, Texas (the "Employee").

1. Position and Duties. The Company will employ Employee as Director of Product Operations. Employee will report to the Chief Operating Officer and will perform duties customarily associated with the position, together with other duties reasonably assigned by the Company. Employee agrees to devote full business time and attention to the Company and to comply with all written policies.

2. Start Date and At-Will Employment. Employment will begin on February 15, 2026. Employee's employment is at will, and either the Company or Employee may terminate employment at any time, with or without cause or advance notice, subject to the payment obligations expressly stated in this Agreement.

3. Compensation. Employee will receive a base salary of $172,000 per year, less applicable withholdings, paid in accordance with the Company's normal payroll practices. Employee will be eligible for an annual discretionary bonus targeted at 15% of base salary, based on individual performance and Company results.

BENEFITS, CONFIDENTIALITY, AND IP

Synthetic legal document for local software testing only.

4. Benefits. Employee may participate in benefit plans generally available to similarly situated employees, subject to plan terms and eligibility requirements. The Company may amend, suspend, or terminate benefit plans at any time.

5. Expenses. The Company will reimburse reasonable business expenses incurred in performing duties under this Agreement, provided Employee submits documentation in accordance with Company policy within 45 days after the expense is incurred.

6. Confidential Information. Employee shall not use or disclose Company Confidential Information except as required to perform duties for the Company. Confidential Information includes product plans, customer lists, pricing, financial data, technical information, security practices, and non-public business strategies. This obligation continues during employment and for five years after employment ends, except trade secrets remain protected as long as permitted by law.

7. Inventions and Work Product. Employee assigns to the Company all rights in inventions, works of authorship, developments, improvements, processes, and materials created within the scope of employment or using Company resources. Employee will execute documents reasonably necessary to confirm the Company's ownership.

TERMINATION AND GENERAL TERMS

Synthetic legal document for local software testing only.

8. Termination for Cause. The Company may terminate Employee for Cause immediately upon written notice. "Cause" includes material misconduct, fraud, theft, conviction of a felony, material breach of this Agreement, repeated failure to perform duties after written warning, or violation of Company policies that causes material harm.

9. Severance. If the Company terminates Employee without Cause after the first six months of employment, and Employee signs a release of claims, the Company will pay eight weeks of base salary continuation and reimburse COBRA premiums for two months. No severance is owed if Employee resigns or is terminated for Cause.

10. Restrictive Covenants. For twelve months after employment ends, Employee will not solicit Company employees to leave the Company or solicit customers with whom Employee had material contact during the last twelve months of employment. Nothing in this Agreement restricts lawful whistleblower activity or protected rights under applicable law.

11. Governing Law. This Agreement is governed by Texas law. Any dispute arising out of this Agreement must be brought in the state or federal courts located in Travis County, Texas, and each party consents to personal jurisdiction there.