

MUTUAL NON-DISCLOSURE AGREEMENT

Synthetic contract sample for local software testing only.

This Mutual Non-Disclosure Agreement (the "Agreement") is entered into as of March 14, 2026 (the "Effective Date") by and between Northstar Analytics, Inc., a Delaware corporation with offices at 1180 Harbor Street, Suite 420, San Francisco, California 94105 ("Northstar"), and Meridian Health Systems LLC, a New York limited liability company with offices at 44 West 29th Street, 9th Floor, New York, New York 10001 ("Meridian"). Northstar and Meridian may each be referred to as a "Party" and collectively as the "Parties."

1. Purpose. The Parties wish to evaluate a potential commercial relationship involving document automation, workflow analytics, and related professional services (the "Purpose"). In connection with the Purpose, either Party may disclose certain confidential and proprietary information to the other Party.

2. Definition of Confidential Information. "Confidential Information" means all non-public information disclosed by or on behalf of a Party, whether orally, visually, electronically, or in writing, that is marked or identified as confidential or that a reasonable person would understand to be confidential given the nature of the information and the circumstances of disclosure. Confidential Information includes business plans, pricing, product roadmaps, technical designs, source code, security materials, customer information, contract terms, financial information, and analyses derived from such information.

3. Exclusions. Confidential Information does not include information that the receiving Party can demonstrate by written records: (a) was publicly available without breach of this Agreement; (b) was known to the receiving Party before disclosure by the disclosing Party; (c) was independently developed without use of or reference to the disclosing Party's Confidential Information; or (d) was rightfully received from a third party without restriction.

CONFIDENTIALITY OBLIGATIONS

4. Use and Protection. The receiving Party shall use Confidential Information solely for the Purpose and shall not disclose Confidential Information to any third party except as expressly permitted by this Agreement. The receiving Party shall protect Confidential Information using at least the same degree of care it uses to protect its own confidential information of similar importance, but in no event less than reasonable care.

5. Representatives. The receiving Party may disclose Confidential Information to its employees, officers, directors, contractors, advisors, attorneys, accountants, and affiliates who have a need to know the information for the Purpose and who are bound by confidentiality obligations at least as protective as those in this Agreement. The receiving Party remains responsible for any breach of this Agreement by its representatives.

6. Required Disclosure. If the receiving Party is required by law, regulation, court order, subpoena, or governmental authority to disclose Confidential Information, it shall, to the extent legally permitted, provide prompt written notice to the disclosing Party and reasonably cooperate with efforts to seek confidential treatment or limit disclosure.

7. No License. All Confidential Information remains the property of the disclosing Party. No license or other rights are granted by implication, estoppel, or otherwise, except the limited right to use Confidential Information for the Purpose. Neither Party is obligated to proceed with any transaction or commercial relationship.

TERM, RETURN OF MATERIALS, AND REMEDIES

8. Term. This Agreement begins on the Effective Date and continues for two years unless earlier terminated by either Party upon ten days' written notice. The confidentiality obligations in this Agreement survive for three years after termination or expiration, except that trade secrets shall remain protected for so long as they qualify as trade secrets under applicable law.

9. Return or Destruction. Upon written request by the disclosing Party, the receiving Party shall promptly return or destroy all Confidential Information in its possession or control, including copies and extracts, except that one archival copy may be retained solely for legal compliance purposes. Any retained information remains subject to this Agreement.

10. Injunctive Relief. The receiving Party acknowledges that unauthorized use or disclosure of Confidential Information may cause irreparable harm for which monetary damages may be inadequate. The disclosing Party may seek injunctive or equitable relief without posting bond, in addition to any other remedies available at law or in equity.

11. No Warranty. Confidential Information is provided "as is." The disclosing Party makes no representation or warranty regarding the accuracy or completeness of Confidential Information, except as may be set forth in a definitive written agreement signed by both Parties.

GENERAL PROVISIONS

12. Governing Law. This Agreement is governed by the laws of the State of New York, without regard to conflict of laws principles. The Parties consent to exclusive jurisdiction and venue in the state and federal courts located in New York County, New York for disputes arising out of or relating to this Agreement.

13. Assignment. Neither Party may assign this Agreement without the prior written consent of the other Party, except to an affiliate or successor in connection with a merger, reorganization, or sale of substantially all assets, provided that the assignee assumes the assigning Party's obligations.

14. Notices. Notices must be in writing and delivered by personal delivery, recognized overnight courier, or certified mail to the addresses listed above, with a copy by email to legal@northstar-example.test for Northstar and legal@meridian-example.test for Meridian. Notices are effective upon receipt.

15. Entire Agreement. This Agreement constitutes the entire agreement between the Parties regarding the subject matter hereof and supersedes all prior or contemporaneous understandings regarding Confidential Information. Amendments must be in writing and signed by authorized representatives of both Parties.

16. Counterparts and Electronic Signatures. This Agreement may be executed in counterparts and by electronic signature. Each counterpart is deemed an original, and all counterparts together constitute one instrument. This synthetic sample omits signatures and has no legal effect.
